About Hillingdon - Hillingdon is a suburban area within the London Borough of Hillingdon and was an ancient parish in the county of Middlesex that originally included the market town of Uxbridge. During the 1920s Hillingdon experienced a rapid increase in population and was absorbed by Uxbridge Urban District in 1929 and is now part of Greater

London. The A40 (Western Avenue) gives access to Central London and was rerouted in the early 1990s allowing traffic to flow without interruption at the junction of Hillingdon Circus. Hillingdon tube station was demolished in order for the new road to be constructed, and a new station was opened in 1994. Hillingdon tube station is served by the Metropolitan and Piccadilly lines.

Hillingdon is home to the Hillingdon Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and is bordered to the far south by London Heathrow Airport and Stockley Business Park with its Championship Golf course, set in 240 acres of rolling countryside.

Primary schools in Hillingdon include Wood End Park Academy, Colham Manor Primary, Oak Farm Juniors, St Bernadette's Roman Catholic Primary School, Hillingdon Primary and Ryefield Primary. Secondary schools include Hewens College, Park Academy West London, Oakwood School, Bishopshalt School, Vyners School and Swakeleys School for Girls.
